We are aware of its importance, which we see as a separate topic, as its importance is more than 50% of the service of public services. Vajiram and Ravi content teams strive to comprehensively cover various aspects of current affairs from multiple sources through our various platforms, such as- Daily articles on current issues on Vajiram Student News Portal on Vajiram App. Recitals- The Monthly Current Affairs Magazine. Daily articles on current affairs, which are uploaded on the student portal, are intended exclusively for students enrolled at the institution, where current affairs from various newspapers are extensively covered from the Prelim test and the Master Exam. At the end of each month, students are asked to appear on a monthly quiz on current affairs, which helps to review current affairs. In addition to comprehensive coverage of exam-related articles, the portal is regularly loaded with editorial summaries, important summaries of magazines, The Practice of Writing Answers, Prelim Test Series, Main Exam Test Series, etc. Vajiram & Ravi has launched a dedicated website and App www.vajiramias.com to the extent of its enriched programs in current affairs. Daily news on App & Ravi's dedicated subscribers. As she read extensive current affairs either from the App portal and students, Vajiram & Ravi's current affairs team believes that students should now gain good knowledge in monthly current affairs and on themselves to further help students to use this topical knowledge in the form of questions and answers. Vajiram & Ravi presented a new monthly magazine called 'Recitals', which approaches current affairs through questions and answers. Recitals break down current affairs in the various sections required for current affairs in the context of multiple selection questions (MCQs), Mains Current Affairs Question & Answers and Interview Current Affairs. The journal Current Affairs not only provides information, but focuses on the analysis of the topical questions needed for the exam. This innovative and unique approach in the journal Current Affairs Recitals helps the student to collect more than 600 Prelims MCQs and 600 Mains Questions & Answers to appear for the Prelim test and main exam, thereby helping to identify the various news articles that can be converted into or Main Q&A Question Bank of Prelims and Mains questions with model answers Helps prepare for all 3 stages of the public service exam in addition to general studies, it helps prepare for Aswell's essay learning art of writing answers as opposed to the element of surprise, by UPSC exams are thrown every year, because for most topical things, for the most current questions of organizing and presenting a good answer, it is good that the law is done by the journal Recitals Current Affairs in itself the teacher and helping the candidate to hold his/her dreamer about the dams of the public service exam and other related exams to civil services. The recitals contain five sections. These are: Feature Article: The Mains Public Service Exam has become quite comprehensive and analytical, especially since 2013 following a curriculum change. Features article section selects and focus on 2-3 topics each month that provide insight into the issue to help students understand the core issues that give the most importance to analysis. This will help in writing the essay as well as the Mains exam. Mains Q&A: This section contains a descriptive question and answer based on current developments. A sign of the current affairs group, it publishes a moving assignment to come out with a Mains Q&A every month. Challenge experienced and effective handles with care to make the best for your zealous readers. Extra Mile is a subsection that provides additional information on the topic in the discussion, with additional information for use on the exam, depending on the need of the question. Prelims Q&A: This section contains objective questions that will test your due diligence while reading current problems. These MCQs will be upsc standard with a detailed explanation. Students are advised to openly try these MCQs and carefully read the explanation. The idea is to also provide students with a bank of questions around 600 current affairs MCQs (50 Qs x 12 months = 600 Qs) before appearing on a preliminary test that will act as an audit on issues dating back the year. Closing the gap: This miscellority is capturing topical topics that could not be converted into MCQ or Q&A, but are relevant to the exam and it is important that candidates are informed about this content. Case study: This section was prepared to help prepare for GS paper -4. That section would include a case study based on this month, along with an analysis and resolution of the problem that was asked in the case. We advise students to regularly study and revise current affairs through an app/www.vajiramias.com that help with systematic coverage of syllabus through the months. Journal of Current Affairs Recitals complements the content on the App portal and Student and helps to complete the candidate's success.
